

Application For Appointment
Brooklyn Center
Community Safety and Violence Prevention Implementation Committee

Background:

On May 15, 2021 the Brooklyn Center City Council passed The Daunte Wright and Kobe Dimock-Heisler Community Safety and Violence Prevention Act. This groundbreaking resolution creates an entirely new Department of Community Safety and Violence Prevention, a new Community Response Department and a new Traffic Enforcement Department. The Community Safety and Violence Prevention Implementation Committee (Implementation Committee) will be responsible for making recommendations, proposing ordinances, policies or other guidelines for adoption to the City Council or City staff, as appropriate, that will fully implement the intent of the resolution. Members of the Implementation Committee must share the commitment to create a safer, healthier, more just, and more thriving community by promoting a diversity of responses to community safety needs that do not rely solely on armed enforcement officers.
